F.A.N.S
FOREIGN AND NATIVE SPEAKERS

Q: Is English your 1st language?
Q: Is English your 2nd, 3rd, or 4th language?
If you answered “yes” to either question, come be a part of F.A.N.S!
F.A.N.S. (Foreign And Native Speakers) is a group that meets once a week. Here’s how it works:
1) Show up.
2) Meet people and talk.
3) Make new friends.

Stony Brook is a big school. Sometimes it seems everyone’s busy with classes and studying. On weekends the campus can seem empty. That can make it difficult to meet new people and socialize. F.A.N.S. is a chance for you to sit down, catch your breath, and experience one-on-one real-time face-time with future friends.

QUESTIONS?
Email:
Matthew.Miranda@stonybrook.edu
DeeDee.Ebalu@stonybrook.edu
Kraig.Koylass@stonybrook.edu

Facebook:
https://www.facebook.com/groups/585714348148268/

WHEN:
FRIDAYS One meeting from 12:00 p.m.-1:00 p.m.
A second meeting from 1:00-2:00
Come to whichever meeting fits your schedule best! Arrive when you wish. Leave when you want to.

WHERE: The Poetry Center
2001 Humanities Building
Go up the stairs.
Turn right.
Turn right again.
The big room on the left is the Poetry Center.

Hope to see you there!!!

If English IS your first language, F.A.N.S. is your chance to meet people from different backgrounds in a comfortable setting and improve your conversational skills. Want to broaden your horizons? Want to experience the brain-tickling pleasure of discovering how much you have in common with someone new? Want to teach someone slang and maybe pick up some slang in another language? Then FANS is for you!

If English ISN’T your first language, F.A.N.S. is your chance to talk in a comfortable setting and improve your conversational English. Want to improve your speaking skills? Want to be more comfortable talking in class? Want to learn slang? Then F.A.N.S. is for you!