Africana Studies presents

“Lucky”

An Independent film

Directed by Laura Checkoway

New Yorker Lucky Torres hides a lifetime of abuse and abandonment behind an angry, tattooed exterior. Growing up in foster care after their mother left them, Lucky and her sister Fantasy have struggled with stability all their lives. While her sister has settled down, Lucky still hasn’t found her way.

Thursday, October 1, 2015,
4:00PM

Humanities 1008

This event, organized by the Department of Africana Studies in its LGBTQ Experience in Communities of Color series, is funded by a Presidential Mini Grant for Departmental Diversity and co-sponsored by the Latin American and Caribbean Studies Center, the Humanities Institute and Hispanic Languages and Literature.

A light reception follows this screening.