In the County of New York

The Town of Brookhaven

NOW, THEREFORE, the Board of Trustees, on behalf of the Town of Brookhaven, hereby present the following proclamation:

PROCLAMATION

The Town of Brookhaven, in recognition of the significant contributions of African Americans to the local and national communities, hereby declares February 28, 2018, as African American History Month. This day shall be observed with educational programs and events that highlight the achievements and challenges faced by African Americans throughout history.

The Town of Brookhaven recognizes the importance of celebrating African American History Month to promote understanding, respect, and unity in our community. Let us come together to honor the contributions of African Americans and celebrate their remarkable achievements.

The Mayor of the Town of Brookhaven

[Signature]

February 28, 2018