Assumption of Risk and Release of Liability for participation in programs or activities at SUNY Stony Brook

I understand and agree that my participation in any campus program or event held at the State University of New York (SUNY) at Stony Brook (Stony Brook University) and specifically the , is voluntary.

I recognize and agree that Stony Brook University, the State University of New York or the State of New York is not liable for any injury, damage, cost, claim demands, causes of action or other loss or liability which I may cause or incur, or may cause others to incur, while using Stony Brook University facilities or equipment, or while participating in any campus program or event sponsored by Stony Brook University and/or its affiliates and agree to release, indemnify and hold harmless Stony Brook and the State of New York from and against any such injury, damage or other loss.

I freely assume all risks of bodily injuries, damages, or other losses while using any University equipment or facilities at Stony Brook, or while participating in any program, event, or activity at Stony Brook or on Stony Brook’s premises.

I acknowledge that I am in good physical condition and do not know of any condition or reason that I should not be able to participate in the activity identified above.

Signature_________________________________________ ID#__________________________________

Print Name_____________________________________

Date:__________________________________________