AUDITIONs

PERFORMANCE DANCE ENSEMBLE/DAN 400 FOR SPRING SEMESTER 2017

- Students auditioning need to be undergraduate or graduate students at SBU. ALL STUDENTS CAN AUDITION
- In addition to class time, students will be expected to attend one weekly rehearsal laboratory in preparation for the final performance.
- The rehearsal labs will be held on Wednesday and/or Friday.
- The Ensemble is open to interested students on campus, so please send this along to anyone who may have interest.

COURSE DESCRIPTION: The DAN 400 class will be held on Tu/Th from 3-5pm
DAN 400: Performance Dance Ensemble. Concentrated development of dance technique and performance skills through rehearsal and presentation of choreography. May be repeated once. Prerequisites: Audition; permission of instructor 3 credits, SBC: HFA+, EXP+

THE UPCOMING AUDITION WILL INCLUDE:

a. 1-2 minute dance you bring, which needs to be choreographed and set. You will perform the work as part of the audition to demonstrate your skills as a performer. It is not necessary that you have choreographed the work; however, it must be set and practiced, able to be repeated.

b. Vocal explorations

c. Improvisation experiments

d. Learning new choreography

If you are interested in auditioning, please send an email to: Amy.Yopp.Sullivan@stonybrook.edu

In the email, please include your name, contact information, year at SBU, and years of dance training. Also include the date you will be auditioning and any further questions you may have.