Shine the Light on Domestic Violence

October is Domestic Violence Awareness Month

Why the color PURPLE?

Purple is the symbolic color for domestic violence awareness

Stony Brook Events

Take a Stand & Walk with Me against Domestic Violence
October 23, 1:00 – 2:30
SAC Plaza to SAC Auditorium

Stony Brook Medicine - information tables outside the entrance to main cafeteria
October 23, 10:00 – 2:00

Recognizing and Responding to Relationship Violence on Campus
- October 29, 12:00 – 1:00
  Wang Center, Room 301
- October 30, 12:00 – 1:00
  HSC Lecture Hall 1
Presented by CPO & Sponsored by EAP

Help Is Available

- Employee Assistance Program (631) 632-6085 stonybrook.edu/eap
- Employee Health and Wellness (631) 444-8187
- Center for Prevention and Outreach (631) 632-2748 stonybrook.edu/cpo
- Counseling & Psychological Services (631) 632-6720 stonybrook.edu/caps
- University Police (631) 632-3333
- Vibs (631) 360-3606 www.vibs.org

Go Purple... And Talk About It!
Awareness is the first step toward real change