

INTERESTED IN WORKING IN

Science Policy?

JOIN THE CONVERSATION

REGISTER HERE: bit.ly/SciencePolicyInfoSession

MONDAY, APRIL 9TH, 2018 • 3 – 4 PM

Stony Brook University, Wang Center (Lecture Hall #1)

Science & Technology
Policy Fellowships

ENHANCING POLICY, TRANSFORMING CAREERS

stpf-aaas.org

fellowships@aaas.org

JOIN US for a conversation with Jennifer Pearl, Fellowship Director and SBU alumna (PhD Mathematics '98), to learn how you can contribute to public service, while developing valuable career-enhancing skills.

WHAT ARE THE AAAS S&T POLICY FELLOWSHIPS?

The premier opportunity for outstanding doctoral level* scientists and engineers to:

- Learn first-hand about policymaking.
- Bring valuable expertise to policy.
- Address today's most pressing challenges.
- Enhance science and engineering in the federal government.

WHERE DO FELLOWS WORK?

Fellows serve yearlong assignments in all three branches of the federal government in Washington, D.C. and represent a broad range of backgrounds, disciplines and career stages. Requires full-time residency in the Washington DC area.

HOW WILL A POLICY FELLOWSHIP ENHANCE MY CAREER?

Alumni utilize their fellowship experience to broaden their career skills, develop an extensive and influential network and enhance their training to pursue careers in a variety of fields. Join a strong corps of over 3,600 policy-savvy alumni fellows working across sectors to serve the nation and citizens around the world.

 applicants with a MS in engineering and three years of professional experience are also eligible to apply.*

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF SCIENCE

Where Science and Policy Change the World. And You.