The Evolution of Flamenco:

a journey across the Atlantic

Wednesday, October 15th, 7:00pm
SAC Auditorium

Join us for part one of a three part Dance Series in honor of Hispanic Heritage Month. Dancers, musicians and vocalists will guide us through the history of traditional flamenco dance and the Latin American cultural contributions to its evolution.

Coordinated by Luisa Torres, Ph.D. Candidate, Molecular and Cellular Pharmacology
Cosponsored by the Department of Molecular and Cellular Pharmacology and the Center for Inclusive Education
