Making Yourself Competitive for Graduate School

This workshop will provide students with an opportunity to learn from Stony Brook faculty about the criteria used by graduate admissions committees to review applications. We also will discuss how to strengthen the critical writing, reading and researching skills necessary for a successful writing sample as well as for graduate education.

Physical and Life Science

Date: Wednesday, March 25, 2015
Time: 2:30pm-3:30pm
Place: The Career Center
W0550 Frank Melville Jr. Memorial Library

For additional information, please contact Elena Polenova at the Career Center:
Email: elena.polenova@stonybrook.edu
Phone: (631) 632-6810

Advance registration is required.
Please log onto ZebraNet to register.
Space is limited.