A researcher of Japanese literature, Atsuo Masamune teamed up with Tekkan Yosano and his famous wife Akiko, on compiling the collected works of Japanese classic. They met in Okayama prefecture where Masamune was born, and started working on this Koten Zenshu. Of 266 volumes of this series, Masamune published 196 of them all by himself. This one is about “Saishu Shokoku Fudoki”, which means ancient records of provincial mythology.
