Test of Proficiency in Korean

About the Test:

TOPIK is the only official standardized test for Korean language proficiency for foreigners administered by the Korean government. The test results can be used for local university applications, as well as employment purposes. There are two levels to choose from: TOPIK I (Basic, Level 1-2) & TOPIK II (Intermediate & Advanced, Level 3-6). The total test score will determine your proficiency standing between Levels 1 through 6.

Registration Dates: August 26th – September 19th

We encourage our students to register through SBU as it is easier for them. The Center of Korean Studies will be a location to accept applications and fees.

To register you will need:

1. A completed application
2. 2 photos (3cm x 4cm)
3. $20 fee (Cash or check, in case of check: make payable to Korean Consulate General)

Submit all materials to: Center for Korean Studies, N5520 Melville Library

Test Venue: Stony Brook University, Melville Library W4550

Test Date: Saturday, November 19th
