LATIN AMERICAN & CARIBBEAN STUDIES

Wednesday, February 11
LACS Social: "A Decade with LACS"
4:00-6:00 PM - LACS Gallery
Social & Behavioral Sciences, N-320
After ten years of growth and achievements, let's celebrate! A midwinter glimpse of LACS' permanent art collection and the newly renovated "LACS Lounge". Refreshments served.

Deadline: February 15
2004-05 Applications for Rockefeller Post-Doctoral Residential Program
"Durable Inequalities in Latin America"
For information, contact lacs@notes.cc.sunysb.edu

Tuesday, February 17
Tinker Application Workshop
4:00-5:00 PM - LACS Seminar Room
Social & Behavioral Sciences, N-320
LACS Director, Sootevski, lectures prospective graduate applicants through the process of applying for Summer 2004 LACS-Tinker Field Research travel grants.

Wednesday, February 25
"Valiente Music, Violence and Magical Realism"
Ana Maria Ochoa
Music Department, Columbia University
An innovative ethnomusicologist (and a Colombian at Columbia) explores the social, historical, and aesthetic roots of one of Colombia's most popular musical forms.
2:00-4:00 PM - LACS Gallery
Social & Behavioral Sciences, N-320
Co-sponsored by LACS, HSB and Department of Music.

Deadline: March 1
Tinker Field Research Grant
For information or download applications, go to LACS' website: www.stonybrook.edu/lacs or visit our office, (SBS, N335).

Wednesday, March 10
"Symbolic Boundaries and Structural Inequalities in Latin America: Bridging the Gap"
Luis Reygadas, (UAM-Iztapalapa, Mexico-LACS Rockefeller Fellow)
Anthropologist Reygadas navigates symbolic and cultural facets of inequality from his year of research at Stony Brook.
4:30 PM - Melville Library, E4340
Humanities Institute (HSIB)
Co-sponsored by LACS and HSIB.

Friday, March 12
LACS Co-Sponsors: "Yo Soy Latino"
An inspiring play by and about Latina women.
8:00 PM - Student Activities Center
Sponsored by Sigma Lambda Beta Inter-Fraternity Inc.

Wednesday, March 24
"The Church and Hispanics on Long Island"
Miguel Ledón, Archdiocese of Rockville Centre
An historian and church activist speaks about the Catholic experience of long Island's newest immigrant communities.
2:00-4:00 PM
Social & Behavioral Sciences, N-320

Friday-Saturday, March 26-27
LACS Co-Sponsors: "BODIES, LANGUAGES AND MEMORY/Cuerpos, lenguajes y memoria"
A pioneering 2-day meeting on this intriguing theme organized by Hispanic Languages, with a notable group of writers and cultural and literary critics, including Frances Aparicio, Rubén Roa Avila and Román de la Campa.
1:00-6:00 PM - Friday, March 26
9:00-5:00 PM - Saturday, March 27
Charles B. Wang Center

Friday, April 2
Annual LACS Graduate Student Conference
"Extending Bridges: Constructing Transnational and National Identity in the Americas"
Keynote Speaker and external commentator: TBA
Annual day-long inter-disciplinary conference run by brilliant and entertaining Stony Brook grad students. Come sample the range of new Latin Americanist grad research at Stony Brook.
9:00 AM - 6:00 PM - LACS Seminar Room
Social & Behavioral Sciences, N-320
Breakfast/Lunch/Reception
Co-sponsored by: Departments of History, Hispanic Languages, Sociology, Linguistics and HSB.

Deadline: April 5
Announcing the new LACS-Partnership "Best Essay Prize" in Latin American-Caribbean Studies
(Undergraduate)
For application information, go to website.

Week of April 19-23
Prime Time Academic Fair
During Campus Lifetime at Student Activity Center

Friday, April 23
"Reframing Inequalities in the Americas"
A conference involving major thinkers and researchers about Latin American inequalities, an initiative of this year's LACS Rockefeller Mentoring Fellows, Jessica Anderson (Peru) and Luis Reygadas (Mexico).
9:00 AM - 6:00 PM
Stony Brook Manhattan, (401 Park Ave. South)
Co-sponsored by Departments of History, Sociology, SPRO, Princeton Inequalities Working Group.

Saturday, April 24
LACS Co-Sponsors: "Building Bridges with Long Island's Latin Community"
Speakers (including Nada Mirin-Molina, Patrick Young) and cultural groups focus on reactions to Latino immigration, complementing the museum's NIH-supported Spring exhibit "Coming Up on the Season: Migrant farm working in the Northeast" (Feb. 28-May 18). Facets also on exhibit in the LACS Gallery in March 2004.
For INFORMATION contact Josh Ruff at (631) 751-0066 x224.
10:00 AM - 4:00 PM
Long Island Museum of American Art, History & Carriages (Stony Brook Village)

New York City Latin American History Workshop (NYCLAW) is an inter-university project which meets Fridays, 12:2-2:00 PM: Stony Brook Manhattan (401 Park Ave, South at 29th St, 2nd Floor). Papers are:
Feb. 20: Dennis Mendoza, Adelphi
March 26: Milena Papademos, NYU
April 30: Beth Perry, Fordham
For e-papers and information contact LACS.

Cinema Tropical at Cinema Arts Center
Cinema Arts Centre, 423 Park Ave, Huntington, NY
Tel. (631) 423-7611; Website: www.cinematropical.com

Max, Jan. 12: UN MURO DESPLIEGO/A Wall of Silence
Leticia Esteva, Argentina, 1993: 7:90 pm
Max, Feb 2: BAJO CAÑON-E/BELOW THE EMBOS/The Limit of Time, Carlos Bakalis, Mexico, 1998: 7:90 pm
Max, March 9: MEMENTOS/Moments
Maria Luisa Bermejo, Argentina, 1981: 7:90 pm