The Tinker Foundation and the Latin American and Caribbean Studies Center (LACS) at Stony Brook University are pleased to offer competitive travel grants for our M.A and Ph.D. students in all disciplines working on Latin America and the Caribbean.

Grants will be in the amount of US$ 1,500 to US$ 2,500, depending on the destinations, and should be used for travel and field-related expenses for pre-dissertation field research in Latin America or the Caribbean (Spanish and Portuguese speaking countries only).

Applicants can be MA or PhD graduate students, although priority will be giving to doctoral students in the early stages of their programs. The Tinker Field Research Grants are not to be used for advanced dissertation research. There are no nationality restrictions on the applicant.

For more information, visit our webpage: www.stonybrook.edu/lacc

Application deadline
April 6th, 2016
By 12:00pm

To apply, visit:
www.stonybrook.edu/lacc/graduate/scholarships

Latin American and Caribbean Studies Center
Social & Behavioral Sciences Building, office N335
Phone: 631.632.7517
Contact: Sarah.Mikels@stonybrook.edu

All applications should be sent electronically to lacs@stonybrook.edu

Funded by The Tinker Foundation and the following units at Stony Brook University:
The Office of the Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences, the Office of the Provost, The Graduate School, Departments of Cultural Analysis & Theory, Ecology & Evolution, Hispanic Languages & Literature, History, Philosophy and Sociology.