Call to OLLI Artists

The Ward Melville Heritage Organization’s Educational and Cultural Center in Stony Brook, is inviting our members to submit works of art for a special Winter Themed exhibit that will highlight OLLI artists, and students from the Atelier at Flowerfield. This is a wonderful opportunity to share the talents of OLLI members with our broader community.
Event: Art Through the Ages

Location: The Ward Melville Heritage Organization’s Education and Cultural Center, 111 Main St. Stony Brook Village Center.

Medium: Framed art work and photography, with a winter theme wired and ready to hang. Framed work may not exceed 18x24.

Entry deadline: November 5th, 2017. Entrants whose works are selected for the exhibit will be notified the week of November 6th.

Submissions: Up to three pieces per artist may be submitted for consideration.

Dates of Exhibit: November 19th 2017 – January 10 2018. Exhibit hours will be 10am - 4pm Wednesdays through Sundays. Drop Off will be the week of November 13th during regular business hours. (Artists will be informed of Holiday closures and a reception).

Liability and Insurance: All work is insured while in the possession of the SBECC. An artist’s agreement form will be sent to members whose works appear in this exhibit.

Submission Method:

1. Submit images to eccartsubmissions@gmail.com
2. Digital images must be no larger than 2mb. Include name, address, phone number, and email, title of art work, medium, and dimensions.
3. Images may be sent directly from a smartphone. Make sure the image is clear, bright and focused.

Questions? Call Stony Brook ECC at 631-689-5888.