PHILOSOPHY COLLOQUIUM FALL 2013

“Emerson and/in Nietzsche”
Benedetta Zavatta, Visiting Scholar-Columbia University
Co-sponsored with the Alfonso M. D’Amato Chair in Italian and Italian American Studies
October 29th, 5:00-7:00 pm

“Addressing the Organ Shortage Crisis Short of Legalizing the Sale of Organs”
Andrew Flescher
Stony Brook University
Program in Public Health
October 31st, 5:30-7:30 pm

“Thinking the Event”
Francois Raffoul, Distinguished Professor
Louisiana State University in Baton Rouge
November 14th, 4:30 pm

“Why Equality Matters: Ethics, Politics, Economics”
Judith Greene
Fordham University
November 21st, 7:00-9:00 pm

“The Elusive Hermes, Method, Discourse, Interpreting”
Peter Carravetta
Stony Brook University
Book Presentation
Respondents: Maria Prado Ballarin-Stony Brook University
Eduardo Mendieta-Stony Brook University
Peter Carravetta-Stony Brook University
December 3rd, 4:30 pm

“The Relevance of Nihilisms in Contemporary Italian Thought”
Brian Schroeder
Rochester Institute of Technology
Co-sponsored with the Alfonso M. D’Amato Chair in Italian and Italian American Studies
December 5th, 4:30 pm

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION, CONTACT:
DEPARTMENT OF PHILOSOPHY
STONY BROOK UNIVERSITY
213 HARRIMAN HALL
STONY BROOK, NY 11794-3750
(631) 632-7575
AnnMarie.Monaghan@stonybrook.edu