PHILOSOPHY COLLOQUIUM SPRING 2014
All papers and receptions will be presented in Harriman 214, unless otherwise specified

Keynote Address: Todd May
Clemson University
February 21st-22nd, 9:00 AM

“The Importance of History in Peacemaking”
Michael van Walt van Praag
Visiting Professor of Modern International Relations and International Law in The Institute for Advanced study at Princeton University
March 13th, 4:15 PM
Charles B. Wang Centre Theatre

“Nietzsche’s Idea of Taking Advantage’ of History and Heidegger's Generosity Toward It”
Robert C. Scharff
University of New Hampshire
March 13th, 4:15 PM

Hannah Arendt Circle Meeting
March 21st-22nd, 10:00 AM
Stony Brook Manhattan

“Façades: The Architecture of (In)Authenticity”
7th Annual Philosophy and Art Conference
March 28th-29th
Keynote Address: Kent Bloomer
Yale University
Stony Brook Manhattan
www.philosophyartconference.org

“Crossings, Hybrids, Genres”
American Philosophies Forum
Stony Brook Manhattan
April 3rd-5th
Co-Sponsors: Emory University & SUNY Stony Brook
http://www.americanphilosophiesforum.org/

“Our Pythocentric Future”
Michael Marder
IKERBASQUE Research Professor of Philosophy at the University of the Basque Country (UPV-EHU), Vitoria-Gasteiz, Spain
April 9th

“Radical Change and Somatic Authority”
Amy Sullivan
Director: Center for Dance, Movement and Somatic Learning
Stony Brook University
April 10th

Sound and Affect: Voice, Music, World
An International Conference
Department of Music and Department of Philosophy
April 18th-19th

Philosophy as a Transitional Genre: On Richard Rorty’s Intellectual Bequest
An International Conference
Richard J. Bernstein
Susan Dieleman
Marianne Janack
Colin Koopman
Wojciech Malecki
Maria Pia Lara
Scott Pratt
Chris Voparil
Emil Visnovsky
Michael Williams
May 2nd-3rd, 10:00 AM

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION, CONTACT:
DEPARTMENT OF PHILOSOPHY
STONY BROOK UNIVERSITY
213 HARRIMAN HALL
STONY BROOK, NY 11794-3700
(631) 632-7970
AnnMarie.Monaghan@stonybrook.edu