UISFL Scholarship Announcement:

The Language Learning Research Center at Stony Brook University invites applications for scholarships to fund study abroad during summer 2015 and/or fall 2015. These scholarships are funded through a generous grant from the U.S. Department of Education for Undergraduate International Studies and Foreign Languages (UISFL).

Purpose: To promote advanced study of foreign languages

Scholarships will normally be in the amount of $1,000.

Applicants must:
- be traveling abroad to a country where English is not the primary language spoken;
- be applying to one of Stony Brook University’s study abroad programs;
- be a full-time student of SBU, SCCC, or NCCC;
- take a foreign language proficiency test before and after participating in the study abroad program;
- be a US citizen or a legal permanent resident of the US.

Preference will be given to applicants who:
- will be enrolling in language/culture/literature courses offered in the host-country language;
- will be enrolling in language courses at the Intermediate-level and beyond (200+);
- have a 3.0 GPA or above.

Application Procedures:
- Complete the SBU study abroad application as directed on the Study Abroad webpage: http://www.stonybrook.edu/studyabroad/outgoing/app_process.html
- Complete the UISFL Scholarship Application Form on the LLRC webpage: https://llrc.stonybrook.edu/

Applications are due by March 1st.

Scholarships will typically be applied directly to your student account to defray the costs of tuition for the study abroad program.
