The Rev. William Barber and the Moral Monday Movement Come to Stony Brook University with

“The Moral Foundation of Worker Rights” Inaugural Distinguished Lecture in Working Class Studies by the Rev. William Barber

Tuesday, April 28th, 2015 at 7pm
Student Activities Center Auditorium
For more information: http://bit.ly/1Ex5IMJ

Rev. William Barber is the President of the North Carolina NAACP and founder of the Moral Monday Movement. One of the most important social justice leaders in the United States today, Rev. Barber speaks in the moral tradition of the Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr. and Cornel West.

Sponsored by the Center for Study of Working Class Life, Stony Brook University, and the University's College of Arts and Sciences, together with: 1199/SEIU UHE; Bethany Presbyterian Church, Huntington; Citizens Campaign for the Environment; Coalition of Labor Union Women (CLUW) - Stony Brook/Long Island; First Baptist Church, Riverhead; Long Island Civic Engagement Table; Long Island Council of Churches; Long Island East District of the New York Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church; Long Island Federation of Labor, AFL-CIO; Long Island Immigrant Alliance; Long Island Jobs with Justice; Long Island Progressive Coalition (LIPC); Make the Road New York; NAACP - Brookhaven Chapter; Protestant Campus Ministries, Stony Brook University; Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Memorial Breakfast Committee; School of Social Welfare, Stony Brook University; Setauket Presbyterian Church; Shinnecock Presbyterian Church, Shinnecock Indian Reservation; Suffolk County Human Rights Commission and Anti-Bias Task Force; Urban League of Long Island; United University Professions - UUP, AFT Local 2190

To find the campus via GPS, enter the address “100 Nicolls Rd., Stony Brook, NY 11790”