Note: Students may offer one of the following for 3 of the 9 upper-division credits: CCS 487, CCS 488 or CCS 495.

E. Cultural Studies Requirement

(choose one from each of the three clusters):

i. Texts in Context (AFH 329, AFH 330, AFS 360, CLT 361, CLT 362, CLT 363, EGL 369, EGL 371 or EGL 375, EGL 390-398, WST 490, certain HUF, HUG, HUI, and HUR courses)*

ii. Visual Culture (ARH 322, ARH 329, ARH 331, ARH 332, ARH 333, ARH 342 or ARH 360)*

(We recommend highly that students take ARH 102 early in their undergraduate program as prerequisite for the above.)

iii. Performing Culture (MUS 300, MUS 313, MUS 314, THR 311, THR 312, THR 313, THR 314 or THR 316)*

*Note: Most of these upper-division courses have some lower-division course(s) as prerequisites. Bear this in mind in planning the early stages of your major.

F. Upper Division Writing Requirement: For all majors, the term paper for required course CCS 301 is evaluated by the instructor for its quality of writing. Students whose writing is satisfactory fulfill this requirement with that paper. Students who do not fulfill the requirement in CCS 301 must submit to the major advisor a portfolio of papers written for subsequent upper-division courses taken for the major no later than the first semester of senior standing, and must achieve an evaluation of S (satisfactory) on the portfolio.
