Major in the Interdisciplinary Program in Humanities (HUM)

The interdisciplinary major in the Humanities leads to the Bachelor of Arts degree. The following courses are required. All must be taken for a letter grade and passed with a grade of "C" or higher. In choosing courses to satisfy requirements A and B the student should be careful to consider the relevant prerequisites for the epochs chosen for requirement D.

Completion of the major entails 48 credits of which 24 must be in the upper division.

A. Basic Humanities Courses. Six credits (two courses) of 100-level Humanities (HUM) courses.

B. Introductory Coursework. Twelve credits of introductory coursework (four courses numbered in the 100s or 200s) chosen from three of the six following areas:

1. Literature and Culture (HUM, EGL, CLT and other courses in literatures and cultures)
 2. Cinema and Cultural Studies (CCS and courses which apply to the CCS major)
 3. Fine Arts: Theatre (THR), Art History (ARH), Music (MUS)
 4. History (HIS)
 5. Philosophy (PHI)
 6. Religious Studies (RLS and pertinent courses under other designators)

- _____

C. Language Study. Six credits (or the equivalent of one year) of college study of a language other than English at the intermediate level or beyond. Courses may be in language, literature or culture.

D. Advanced Studies. Twenty-one upper-division credits (seven courses numbered 300 and above) to be distributed as follows: three courses in one of the following epochs and two courses in each of two other epochs. This requirement may be completed by courses with any of the designators listed as long as the student has the proper prerequisites:

1. Ancient Worlds [ANT, ARH, CLS, CLT, EGL, HIS, JDH, JDS, LAT, PHI, RLS]
2. The Middle Ages [ARH, CLT, EGL, FRN, GER, HIS, ITL, LAT, MUS, MVL, PHI, RLS, RUS, SPN]
