

19 February 2010

Recommendation by the Arts and Sciences Senate Faculty Rights and Responsibilities Policy Committee

Approved unanimously by a vote of the Arts and Sciences Senate at its meeting of 15 February 2010.

Representation of Stony Brook Southampton Full-Time Faculty on the Stony Brook University - Arts and Sciences Senate

Full-time faculty members appointed primarily to Stony Brook Southampton shall be represented on the Stony Brook University Arts and Sciences Senate (and therefore also on the University Senate).

SBSH faculty members with primary disciplinary expertise in Natural and Life Sciences and Mathematics areas shall be included along with the Natural Sciences and Math group; those with primary disciplinary expertise in Social and Behavioral Sciences shall be included in the Social and Behavioral Sciences group, and those with primary disciplinary expertise in Humanities and Fine Arts shall be included in the Humanities and Fine Arts group. ***

Hence, full-time SBSH faculty members shall be candidates for positions as At-Large Senator and on Standing Committees according to their primary disciplinary expertise.

Correspondingly, each full-time SBSH faculty member shall be entitled to run for open positions on University Senate Standing Committees according to these same criteria.

Stony Brook Southampton shall also have one "Departmental" Senator on the Arts and Sciences Senate who shall also serve as the SBSH Senator on the University Senate.

Note: SBSH faculty members may not hold more than one position per Arts and Sciences Senate Standing Committee.