SENIOR LECTURER SELECTION COMMITTEE

Below are revisions to the Arts and Sciences Senate Constitution to conform to agreements with the Administration on specific wording concerning the Senior Lecturer Title Award. This revised formulation will be voted upon by the Arts and Sciences Senate at its December 2011 meeting.

SENIOR LECTURER SELECTION COMMITTEE

f. Senior Lecturer Selection Committee (SLSC) shall review all nominations for the title award of Senior Lecturer as recommended by Departments or Programs and the appropriate Dean. On the basis of these recommendations, the SLSC shall evaluate each case and submit its decisions to the Provost for approval. The SLSC will follow specific Guidelines as formulated by the Arts and Sciences Senate Faculty Rights and Responsibilities Policy Committee.

SENIOR LECTURER SELECTION COMMITTEE MEMBERS

f. The Senior Lecturer Selection Committee (SLSC) shall consist of five voting full-time tenured faculty members (with staggered terms). If available, one of the five committee members shall be a full-time Senior Lecturer instead of one of the tenured members:

(1) one elected tenured faculty member from each of the following:

(i) the humanities and fine arts (including journalism)

(ii) the social and behavioral sciences;

(iii) the natural sciences (including physical sciences, mathematics, biological, and marine sciences)

(2) two tenured faculty members (or a Senior Lecturer) appointed by the Provost from disciplines including full-time Lecturers on their faculty.

3. Whenever a department, program, issue, or student is under review by an Arts and Sciences Senate Standing Committee, all voting members of that department or program whose department, program, issue, or student is under review shall absent themselves from the room during the official discussion and vote. The committee member may be available for questions or comment prior to the official discussion and vote.

4. No more than one faculty member from the same department or program may serve on an Arts and Sciences Senate Standing Committee.
