Grants/Scholarships for Overseas Study

SBU students are encouraged to consider applying for any of the opportunities listed below. Please note that these are not scholarships to fund study abroad programs offered through SBU. Please visit the official websites for further information and contact the Campus Advisor for assistance with the application process.

Fulbright U.S. Student Program – for graduating seniors & grad students to study, do research or teach English in over 140 countries.
Deadline: mid-October - Campus Deadline: mid-September. Interview required with Campus Committee

www.us.fulbrightonline.org

DAAD – German Academic Exchange Service – grants for study and research in Germany for graduating seniors, grad students and PhD candidates.
Deadlines:
November 1 (Fine Arts, Music, Dance, Architecture) - SBU Campus Deadline: same as Fulbright November 15 (all other fields) - SBU Campus Deadline: same as Fulbright

www.daad.org

Boren Scholarships - for undergraduate students
Boren Fellowships – for graduate students
Intensive language study in world regions deemed critical to the U.S. national security. There is a one year service requirement in the federal government for award recipients.
Deadline: February - SBU Campus Deadline: late January (interview required with Campus Committee)

www.borenawards.org

Stony Brook Campus Advisor:

Kathleen Flint Ehm, PhD
Director, Office of the Integration of Research, Education, and Professional Development (IREP)
2438 Computer Science  tel. 632-7531  kathleen.ehm@stonybrook.edu