

Stony Brook Logos

The University logo.

The University Hospital logo is used for hospital-based programs, services, and offices such as blood bank, X-ray, laundry, teleservices, etc. The location at the bottom of letterhead must correspond to your in-hospital service or office location.

The Health Sciences Center logo is used for Health Sciences programs, services, and administrative departments, including medical informatics, library, publications, etc., and the five Health Sciences schools. Stationery is used for all educational or research activities and not for clinical (outpatient) services.

The Health Sciences Center schools use these logos for business cards and memo pads only. Refer to page 15.

The University Physicians at Stony Brook logo is used by physicians for all clinical practices, appointment cards, and patient interaction, whether located at Tech Park, Brookhaven National Laboratory, and/or affiliated sites.