

Greater Port Jefferson-Northern Brookhaven Arts Council

Port Jefferson Documentary Series Fall 2007

All Tickets are $5.00 General / $4 GPJ-NBAC members & seniors / students - free

Call the Arts Council at 631.473.5220 or visit www.gpjac.org

Monday, October 15, 2007

7:00 PM at Charles B. Wang Center, Stony Brook University

Abduction: The Megumi Yokota Story

This gripping documentary from Executive Producer Jane Campion reveals the story of a thirteen-year-old girl abducted from Japan in 1977 by North Korean spies, and intimately follows the emotional journey of her parents, who find their personal tragedy thrust into a volatile international conflict.

Special Guest Speaker

TBA

USA, 2006, 85 minutes, Documentary, Japanese - Korean w/English Subtitles MPAA Rating: Not Rated but PG

The Port Jefferson Documentary Series is Sponsored by:

Harry Hackett III at Merrill Lynch, Maiella Associates, Inc., The Jaeger Team at Prudential Douglas Elliman Real Estate, Maureen & Neil Kurtz, Port Jefferson Florist, Inc., Cappy's Carpet, Inc., Neil J. Abelson, Port Security & Communication Corp., Pulse Answering Service, Craig Silverman - Axa Advisors, Island Medical Physicians, PC

GPJ-NBAC programs are made possible with public funds from the New York State Council On the Arts, a State Agency; Suffolk County under the auspices of the Office of Cultural Affairs, Steve Levy, County Executive; State Senator Kenneth LaValle, State Assemblyman Steven Englebright, County Legislators: Joseph Caracappa, Vivian Fisher & Daniel Losquadro; Town of Brookhaven, Brian Foley, Supervisor; Village of Port Jefferson, Brian Hardy, Mayor

