

BSPG Meditation Workshop

Led By

Sensei Issai Chizen

Saturday, Nov 3, 2007 9:30 am–2:30 pm

Wang Center, Room 101,

Stony Brook University

Program includes sitting, walking meditation and private interview for participants to discuss any question about spiritual practice.

Please wear comfortable clothing.

Bring a bag lunch, and a meditation cushion if you have one.

FREE for students.

$20 donation suggested for non-students.

To register, contact Sheila at asriversflow@yahoo.com or Hai-Dee at haideelee@yahoo.com

Ven. Issai Chizen Denton Sensei is a Dharma successor of Ven. Mitsunen Kosho Nordstrom Roshi and a lineage holder in both Soto and Rinzai schools of Zen. He has been studying Buddhism for nearly 40 years. In addition to being the head priest and resident teacher at Wagyo-ji Zen Temple in Oceanside of Long Island NY, he is also the Executive Director and Head of liturgy and training at Zenshin Temple in Yonkers, NY, and vice-abbot of Kugei-in in Melbourne, FL.

Sponsored by BSPG and The Charles B. Wang Center at the Stony Brook University

BSPG Group on the Web: <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/bspg-sbu/>

RSVP: Sheila at asriversflow@yahoo.com or Hai-Dee at haideelee@yahoo.com

For campus directions: <http://ws.cc.sunysb.edu/doi/maps.html>

