

BSPG Lecture Series

"The Bodhisattva Path"

by Venerable Issai Chizen
Denton Sensei

THURSDAY, MAY 4, 2006
6:30 PM – 8:30 PM.
LECTURE HALL 1
CHARLES B. WANG
CENTER
STONY BROOK UNIVERSITY

*We vow to help all beings to find happiness and to become free from suffering.
How can we work realistically to fulfill that vow without becoming overwhelmed?
How can we grow in compassion? What do we mean by compassion?*

The Ven. Issai Chizen Denton Sensei has been studying Buddhism for nearly 40 years. He is a Dharma successor of the Ven. Mitsunen Kosho Nordstrom Roshi and a lineage holder in both Soto and Rinzai schools of Zen. In addition to being head priest and resident teacher at Wagyo-ji Zen Temple in Oceanside, NY, he has been executive director and head of liturgy and training at Zenshin Temple, in Yonkers.

For campus directions, please visit: <http://ws.cc.sunysb.edu/doit/maps.html>

Presented by Buddhist Studies and Practice Group, SBU and the Charles B. Wang Center <http://www.stonybrook.edu/wang>
<http://groups.yahoo.com/group/bspg-sbu>