Port Jefferson Documentary Series Spring 2008

Monday, March 31, 2008

7:00 PM at Charles B. Wang Center, Stony Brook University

In cooperation with the Charles B. Wang Center, Stony Brook University

Described by the New York Times as one of the most morally unsettling political thrillers of its time, Terror's Advocate traces the career of Jacques Vergès, lawyer to some of the 20th century's most heinous criminals and terrorists, including Klaus Barbie, Slobodan Milosevic and Carlos the Jackal. The film is more than an exposé of a morally questionable figure, but also a chronicle of political violence and terrorism in our time.

Special Guest Speaker

Gallya Lahav

Associate Professor of Political Science at Stony Brook University
