

Paper comes to LIFE!

About the movie:

Te-Jui (TJ) Fu, is a famous origami artist in the Houston area. He runs the Origami museum in Houston and has many origami installations to his credit. The movie is a recording of the making of two of these installations. They are both dragons.

*The first part is the making of a western dragon in Baltimore, MD in 1988. This was meant to be part of a cultural exchange project between the city of Baltimore and Osaka, Japan. It was organized by the office of the Mayor of Baltimore.
Size: 25 ft long*

*The second, traditional Chinese dragon was part of the Harrison county education 2002 Asian Pacific Heritage Month celebration
The dragon is 15 ft long.*