

ANSWER GRID	All About “Q”	The Hearing	Accused	Guilty	An Unfair Advantage?	Protecting Yourself
100	“F” Discussion Points: What is a “Q” Course Removing a “Q” from your record	TRUE It is typically included in the Academic Judiciary’s initial contact letter Discussion Point: Initial contact procedure	FALSE	FALSE Discussion Point: Review the Drop & Pass/No Credit procedure in relation to academic dishonesty	TRUE	TRUE
200	Wednesdays during Campus Life Time For 10 weeks Discussion Points: How to sign up for a “Q” Course Topics Discussed during “Q” course	FIVE (a hearing officer, 2 faculty/staff/TAs, 2 undergrad. students) Discussion Point: How to become part of hearing boards on campus	Plead guilty or file an appeal Discussion Point: Consequences of each action	Typically a “Q” will be recorded for the course and a student will be given the opportunity to take a “Q” course	TRUE	A center on campus where a student can meet with a tutor and receive help with his/her writing Location: Humanities 2009 Discussion Point: Other ways a student can protect him/herself
300	“Found Guilty - Academic Dishonesty” is removed from transcript & “Q” is replaced by earned grade with any assigned penalty factored in to the grade Discussion Point: Typical penalties	A student will be liable for a second accusation of academic dishonesty Discussion Point: Preparing for a hearing	A student must appeal an accusation by requesting a hearing. A student must write a letter to the appropriate judicial office (AJC or CEAS-CASA) or submit an appeal form on the Academic Judiciary Website Once that is completed, a hearing date will be scheduled.	A student can be suspended or permanently expelled and permanent marks may be placed on his/her academic record	(Defined in text as a concept that...) “implies that everyone adheres to a strict moral code regarding academic life on campus” Discussion Point: Relate this back to the earlier group discussions at the start of class	MLA Style Guide APA Style Guide Chicago– Turabian Style Guide Discussion Point: Choosing a style