A Top Tier University

Top Rankings
The London Times Higher Education World University Rankings places Stony Brook in the top 1 percent of the world’s universities. Stony Brook is ranked in the top 100 best national universities and top 50 public national universities by U.S. News & World Report. Our clinical psychology, geometry, and nuclear physics programs rank in the top 10 graduate programs nationwide. And we are one of only 62 members of the prestigious, invitation-only Association of American Universities—along with Harvard, MIT, Princeton, and Yale, America’s top research universities. We are recognized for our strong undergraduate research program by U.S. News & World Report. We also have a top-rated University-based teaching hospital on campus.

Top Teachers
Our award-winning faculty include the winners of four Nobel Prizes, two Pulitzer Prizes, five MacArthur Fellowships, both the Abel Prize and the Fields Medal in Mathematics, and three Grammy Awards. C.N. Yang, Albert Einstein Professor Emeritus of the C.N. Yang Institute for Theoretical Physics, was Stony Brook’s first Nobel Prize winner. The MRI technology that won the Nobel Prize for Medicine was invented at Stony Brook.

Stony Brook researchers discovered the golden bamboo lemur and led the team that found the top quark. At Stony Brook, you will learn from those who are making the discoveries and generating the knowledge that is changing the world today.

Top Students
Every year Stony Brook students earn national recognition through Beckman, Churchill, Barry M. Goldwater, Howard Hughes Medical Institute, Marshall, and UNCF-Merck awards. Our alumni are leaders in their fields and include the president of Stanford University, a Pulitzer Prize-winning investigative journalist, the leader of the imaging team for the Cassini mission to Saturn, the first American woman astronaut, and the chairman and CEO of IMAX Corporation.

Living at Stony Brook

Residential living at Stony Brook includes:

Academic Resources
Take advantage of the residential tutoring centers that offer free assistance with many popular classes. Live near the University’s libraries, labs, and studios, so you can get where you need to be quickly and easily.

Comfortable Living
Our residence halls and apartments are continually being updated and outfitted with the latest in technology and innovation.

Computing Centers
Each quad has its own state-of-the-art computing center open seven days a week, offering daytime and late-night hours for residents. The centers are staffed by knowledgeable students who can provide training and assistance.

Convenience
Our six quads and undergraduate apartments are within walking distance of the Academic Mall. The University bus system provides free service around campus and to a major indoor shopping center.

Dining Options
Students have their choice of two residential dining halls for any meal. Other dining options across campus include a kosher deli, Starbucks, vegan/vegetarian, Chinese, Mexican, wraps, brick oven pizza, stir-fry, organic foods, sushi and seafood, a convenience store, and Jasmine, our full-service Asian-themed eatery. Some facilities are open extended hours for late-night snacks and socializing with friends.

High-Speed Services
All rooms offer high-speed Internet access, premium-plus cable television service, and a state-of-the-art phone system with voice mail.

Highly Qualified Staff
Our diverse Campus Residences staff includes quad directors, residence hall directors, and administrative offices within each quad. Each residence hall is supervised by a full-time, live-in professional residence hall director who is available daily for guidance on academic and interpersonal issues. Student resident assistants supervise living units, coordinate social and educational programs, ensure safety, and act as resources for students. The student-to-staff ratio is 36:1—comparable to or better than that at similar institutions.

Safety and Security
Your personal safety is our priority.
- The Residential Safety Service provides a presence at the main entrance of every residence hall at night, limiting access to residents and their guests.
- Exterior doors are always locked; residents swipe their ID cards to access most residential buildings.
- At night, walking escorts are available from any point on campus back to your residence hall.
- Our University police officers patrol the campus, including residential areas, 24 hours a day, and close it to unauthorized persons at midnight.
- Blue light phones located throughout the campus enable students to seek assistance at any time.
- Personal safety education programs are offered to students throughout the year.

Transportation
A Long Island Rail Road station right on campus puts Stony Brook within easy reach of New York City and JFK International Airport. The ferry in nearby Port Jefferson makes travel easy to Connecticut, the rest of New England, and Canada.

Intensive English Center (IEC)
The IEC offers an English language program for all international students who need full-time English instruction prior to matriculation. Visit the IEC Web site below for more information. A brochure will be mailed upon written request, either by postal mail or e-mail.

Stony Brook is a highly selective institution, seeking to enroll those students who demonstrate the intellectual curiosity and academic ability to succeed. Freshman admission is based primarily upon the strength and breadth of the student’s academic preparatory program, grade point average, and TOEFL, IELTS, SAT, or ACT scores. Additional criteria include a letter of recommendation and essay.

Use The Common Application to apply to Stony Brook University.

Deadlines for international students:
For Fall semester (late August): Apply by March 1
For Spring semester (mid-January): Apply by October 1

To receive the greatest consideration for merit scholarships, the Honors College, the WISE Program, and the Honors Program in Computer Science, freshman applicants for the Fall semester should complete The Common Application and have all supporting academic documentation on file by January 15.

For more information about application procedures and Stony Brook University, visit www.stonybrook.edu/admissions/intl or e-mail enrollintl@stonybrook.edu

Directions to Campus
Fly into one of three area airports: John F. Kennedy International Airport (JFK) or LaGuardia Airport (LGA), both 80 kilometers west of campus, or Long Island MacArthur Airport (ISP), 25 kilometers south of Stony Brook. All airports offer limousine and taxi service to campus. From JFK, you can also take the AirTrain to Jamaica Station and transfer to the Long Island Rail Road for the train to Stony Brook. The Stony Brook station is located on the north side of the campus.
