ARB

Arabic

ARB 111, 112 Elementary Arabic I, II
An introduction to Modern Standard Arabic, stressing speaking, comprehension, reading, and writing. Selected texts are read. Practice in the language laboratory supplements class work. No student who has had two or more years of Arabic in high school (or who has otherwise acquired an equivalent proficiency) may receive credit for ARB 111 without written permission from the supervisor of the course.
Prerequisite to ARB 112: ARB 111
3 credits per course