Sign Language

SLN 111, 112 Elementary American Sign Language I, II

An introduction to American Sign Language, the visual-gestural language of the deaf. It incorporates nonverbal communication techniques, basic vocabulary, basic grammar principles, and basic conversational skills. This course is designed for students who have no prior knowledge of the language. A student who has acquired an equivalent proficiency may not take SLN 111 without written permission from the supervisor of the course.

Prerequisite to SLN 112: SLN 111

3 credits per course

SLN 475, 476 Undergraduate Teaching Practica I, II

Work with a faculty member as an assistant in one of the faculty member’s regularly scheduled classes. The student is required to attend all the classes, do all the regularly assigned work, and meet with the faculty member at regularly scheduled times to discuss the intellectual and pedagogical matters relating to the course. In SLN 476, students assume greater responsibility in such areas as leading discussions and analyzing results of tests that have already been graded. Students may not serve as teaching assistants in the same course twice.

Prerequisites to SLN 475: U3 or U4 standing; permission of instructor

Prerequisites to SLN 476: SLN 475; permission of instructor

3 credits per course, S/U grading
