The minor in Classical Civilization provides students with a broad knowledge of the cultures of ancient Greece and Rome. After elementary literary surveys, the student completes at least two semesters of Latin and selects a mixture of courses with classical content from offerings in classics, classical languages, and related courses from other departments.

Courses Offered in Classical Civilization

See the Course Descriptions listing in this Bulletin for complete information.

Group I:
- LAT 111, 112 Elementary Latin I, II
- LAT 251, 252 Readings in Latin Literature I, II
- LAT 353 Literature of the Roman Republic
- LAT 354 Literature of the Roman Empire
- LAT 355 Early Medieval Latin
- LAT 356 Late Medieval Latin
- LAT 447 Directed Readings in Latin
- LAT 475 Undergraduate Teaching Practicum

Group II:
- CLS 113 Greek and Latin Literature in Translation

Group III:
- CLS 215 Classical Mythology
- EGL 260 Mythology in Literature
- PHI 200 Introduction to Ancient Philosophy
- PHI 300 Ancient Philosophy

Group IV:
- CLS 320 Topics in Classical Civilization
  - ARH 300 Greek Art and Architecture
  - ARH 301 Roman Art and Architecture

Group V:
- PHI 200 Introduction to Ancient Philosophy
- PHI 300 Ancient Philosophy

Requirements for the Minor in Classical Civilization (CLS)

The student must select at least two courses from group I, and one course from each from groups II through V, including nine credits numbered 300 or above, for a total of 21 credits. Substitutions may be permitted for other courses with classical content with permission of the minor coordinator. No more than one of the courses required for the minor may be taken under the Pass/No Credit option.

Completion of the minor requires 21 credits.