ACH 275 Undergraduate College Fellows Seminar
Creates a curricular component for the second year of the Undergraduate College Experience. College fellows will enroll in the ACH 275 course in the spring semester of their freshman year and ACH 276 in the fall semester of their sophomore year. 275 (spring) engages students in four main content areas: student development theory, scholarship on mentoring and leadership development, concepts of teaching and learning, and programming and event planning. These areas prepare students for supervised learning and teaching experiences that will occur primarily in the fall 276 course.
Prerequisites: Grade of “S” in ACH 101 and a strong desire to help other students. Enrollment in the corresponding Undergraduate College; permission of the instructor.
1 credit, S/U grading

ACH 276 Undergraduate College Fellows Practicum
The second semester in the sequence following ACH 275. Students assume higher responsibility and are given opportunities to apply teaching theories and concepts as learned in ACH 275. Students act as a TA for ACH 101.
Prerequisites: A grade of “S” in ACH 275. Enrollment in the corresponding Undergraduate College; permission of the instructor.
1 credit, S/U grading
