Cinema and Cultural Studies

CCS 101-B Images and Texts: Understanding Culture
The images and texts of advertising, television, art, writing, film, and performance and how they come to characterize and shape our everyday lives. Using case studies, students learn how to recognize, read, and analyze culture within a particular social, cultural, or political context, touching upon such important issues as race, gender, class, ideology, and censorship.

3 credits

CCS 201 Writing About Culture
The course teaches research methodology, develops critical thinking, and hones argumentative writing skills. A range of cultural artifacts, issues, and approaches are considered along with the ways that various discourses appropriate or critique them. Students gain extensive training in the methods essential to the use of resources and to critical writing.

Prerequisite: Completion of D.E.C. category A

3 credits

CCS 301-G Theorizing Cinema and Culture
Recent trends in critical theory applied to the study of film, television, literature, popular music, and other types of “cultural production.” In-depth analyses of specific literary, visual, and musical texts are situated within structures of power among communities, nations, and individuals. Exploration of how identities of locality, gender, ethnicity, race, and class are negotiated through cultural forms.

Prerequisite: Two courses toward the major in cinema and cultural studies

3 credits

CCS 311-G Gender and Genre in Film
Examination of the notion of genre as a category of analysis and its often conflictive relationship to gender in the context of specific genres (the western, film noir, the horror film) and film story. Attention is paid to a particular genre’s appeal to men and/or women as well as its relationship to larger social, cultural, and political issues.

Prerequisite: CCS 201 or HUM 201 or 202 or THR 117

3 credits

CCS 401 Senior Seminar in Cinema and Cultural Studies
Intensive study in a specific area of cinema and cultural studies. Possible topics include a film genre, a focused theoretical perspective, and the life and work of an important director or artist. Semester supplements to this Bulletin contain specific description when course is offered. May be repeated for credit as the topic changes.

Prerequisites: U4 standing; CCS major

3 credits

CCS 475 Undergraduate Teaching Practicum
