

AFRICANA STUDIES DEPARTMENT
RICHARD B. MOORE SCHOLARSHIP

The Richard B. Moore Scholarship is available annually to one or two outstanding students of African heritage at Stony Brook University, State University of New York, in recognition of strong academic performance and service to the University community. The Richard B. Moore Scholarship has been established by the Stony Brook Foundation in recognition of Richard B. Moore, who was born in Barbados, became a resident in the United States in 1908, and was a social reformer in Harlem for more than 60 years.

ELIGIBILITY

The Richard B. Moore Scholarship is open to full-time, upper-division students (junior or senior standing) of African American or African heritage. The student must have spent one semester or more in residence at the Stony Brook campus, and may be nominated for the scholarship or may apply directly.

AWARD

The scholarship carries an award of $500.

SELECTION CRITERIA & PROCEDURE

The qualities of academic performance and service to one's community are important criteria reflected by the contributions of Richard B. Moore. Each applicant must therefore present evidence of both strong academic performance and service to the University community. In this regard, an applicant should submit:

- a) Completed application form
- b) A 1-2 page essay/ statement of eligibility
- c) A résumé
- d) A transcript
- e) Two (2) letters of recommendation, one of which must be from a faculty member at Stony Brook, and one may be from outside the Stony Brook community.

DEADLINE FOR NOMINATIONS/APPLICATIONS

Nominations or applications should be received by Thursday, April 30, 2020. Applications should be submitted to: Tracey.Walters@stonybrook.edu with a copy to Ann.Berrios@stonybrook.edu

SELECTION

1. Candidates will be screened by a selection committee and finalists submitted to the Stony Brook Foundation.
2. Finalists may be asked to appear before the Stony Brook Foundation.
3. Awards will be announced in the month of May, before the end of the Spring semester. Presentations will be made at the Africana Studies graduation.
