Opportunities Week of April 17th, 2020

Virtual Career Meetup: Diversity Programs / Internships: A virtual career meetup is a small-group discussion designed for students to ask career questions, brainstorm possible pathways, and determine action steps. Career coaches facilitate discussion and provide opportunities for peer to peer career learning. We recommend that students participate in one or more career meetup for continued growth and learning.

Event is Tuesday, April 21, 2020

Webinar: Exploring Osteopathic Medicine for Pre-Meds: Exploring Osteopathic Medicine is a virtual event intended for pre medical students interested in learning more about osteopathic medicine. Join the American Association of Colleges of Osteopathic Medicine (AACOM) for this in-depth look at the osteopathic medical profession and what it means to be a DO. This virtual event will include panel discussions with live questions and answers from current medical students, practicing physicians, and admissions representatives. AACOM will give an overview of ACOMAS, the primary application to osteopathic medical school, offer tips and tricks on how to ace the ACOMAS application. AACOM is thrilled to welcome Dr. Jen Caudle as a speaker for the event. Dr. Jen is a board certified family medicine physician known for her appearances on local and national news networks including the TODAY Show, the Dr. Oz Show, CNN, Steve Harvey Show, and many others. Registration is required.
