Opportunities Week of May 17, 2019

University at Buffalo Dual Degrees: The University at Buffalo School of Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences offers dual degrees. These innovative programs combine multiple interests into one degree, saving time, money, and increasing employment marketability and have a 100% admit rate for PharmD students. Dual degrees combine the PharmD program with an MBA, MPH, MS in Pharmaceutical Sciences, MS in Pharmacometrics, PhD in Pharmaceutical Sciences, or a JD.

For more info on the dual degrees offered, see http://pharmacy.buffalo.edu/academic-programs/pharmd/combined-degrees/dual-graduate-degrees.html

Southern Teachers Positions: Southern Teachers currently have over a hundred science openings in schools. The schools seek teachers with subject-matter expertise who are enthusiastic about working with children and teenagers, certification is not typically required.
