

Michael Carr, J.D., M.S., M.S.

Michael Carr joined the faculty of Stony Brook University in 2018. He is a retired Silicon Valley attorney, having represented tech startups during the first .com boom in the mid to late 1990s.

Following his retirement from law in 2000, he started sharing his knowledge by teaching at UC Berkely. Since then he has regularly taught and lectured at numerous colleges and universities on a broad array of business topics ranging from workplace safety to leadership & management, business law, business ethics, strategy, human resources, and entrepreneurship. He also founded a successful maritime shipping business, operating along the eastern seaboard.

EDUCATION:

SUNY Albany: B.A. Summa Cum Laude

Honors: Dean's List

Gold Key National Honor Society

Activities: American Psychological Society, Albany Chapter-Founder & President

SUNY Stony Brook: M.S. in Human Resource Management

Western Governors University: M.S. in Leadership and Management

St. John's University School of Law: J.D.

Honors: Dean's List

American Jurisprudence Awards: Estate Administration and Litigation, Suretyship and Mortgages

Activities: St. John's Journal of Legal Commentary: Articles Editor

St. John's International Law Review: Staff Member

N.Y.C. Environmental Law and Energy Society: Secretary