

Financial Aid & Co-op

Resources for students considering Co-ops

This information is meant to be an informative guide only. Since Financial Aid is a function of many different factors, it is recommended that you consult directly with the Financial Aid and Scholarship Services regarding your individual situation.

NYS TAP and Scholarships Eligibility Requirements

NYS TUITION ASSISTANCE PROGRAM (TAP): go HERE for more information

EXCELSIOR SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM: go HERE for more information

OTHER NYS GRANTS & SCHOLARSHIPS: go HERE for more information

Federal Aid Awards

FEDERAL PELL GRANT: go HERE for more information

TYPES of FINANCIAL AID: go HERE for more information

LOAN GRACE PERIODS: go HERE for more information

SCHOLARSHIPS: go HERE for more information

ENROLLMENT and your FINANCIAL AID: go HERE for more information

NEW* As of 2015, co-op earnings are not counted against a student's eligibility for federal need-based aid. In other words, co-op earnings will not increase estimated family contribution (EFC) on FAFSA.*

With more questions, contact Office of the Registrar and the Financial Aid & Scholarship Services:

 Stony Brook University Office of the Registrar

 631-632-6175

 registrar_office@stonybrook.edu

 Stony Brook University | Financial Aid & Scholarship Services

 631-632-6840

 finaid@stonybrook.edu