Subject: 2022-2023 DR. W. BURGHARDT TURNER DISSERTATION FELLOWSHIP

Mission of the Turner Fellowship Dissertation Award

To assist underrepresented or other disadvantaged doctoral students in the timely completion of their dissertation and to engage them in the Turner Fellowship and Center for Inclusive Education community. Turner Fellows demonstrate that our nation's historically underrepresented or disadvantaged groups are excelling in graduate scholarship. Turner fellows show intent to carry out their social responsibility as future leaders, educators, and/or researchers here in the United States.

Deadline

Please submit your nominations by Friday, May 13, 2022. Award notifications will be sent by the end of May. We anticipate awarding up to 5 fellowships during this nomination cycle.

Award Information

- Departments may nominate dissertation fellows for either 1 or 2 year awards of $10,000 per year to be disbursed in two annual, one-half installments.
- In the case of 2 year nominations, departments are required to supplement the Turner support with other departmental funding for a minimum of one year in the form a TA, GA or RA appointment.
- Recipients must be registered for full-time study by day 15 of each semester in order to maintain eligibility.

Eligibility

1. United States citizen or permanent resident
2. Doctoral student at Stony Brook
3. Advancement to Candidacy (G5) prior by the start of the requested semester of fellowship distribution
4. Student has not previously received any funding support from the Dr. W. Burghardt Turner Fellowship Program

Nomination Procedures:

All nomination materials must be combined as a single .pdf document and emailed to TurnerFellowships@stonybrook.edu by the deadline above.

1. Completed Nomination Form
2. Nomination letter from the Graduate Program Director or Chair
3. Letter of support from the dissertation advisor/dissertation committee chair

The two letters above should in combination clearly address the following:

- The stage of the nominee's dissertation writing
 - Projected date of completion for the Ph.D.
 - Listed members of the student's dissertation committee indicating who is serving as chair
 - Indication of how and why the department feels the student's experiences and research/professional goals fall in line with the mission of the Turner fellowship program to support underrepresented or other disadvantaged scholars in their pursuit and completion of terminal degrees who will contribute to the diversity of the student body
4. Graduate level transcripts (official transcripts from Stony Brook are NOT necessary)
 5. A current C.V.
 6. Copies of teaching evaluations, if available
 7. A brief description of the research (written by the nominee)
 8. Nominee's Statement of Teaching Philosophy

9. A Turner Fellowship statement that consists of a one-page personal statement from the candidate stating the ways in which the candidate believes s/he/they will contribute to the diversity on campus or their field of study, their long term goals to carry out their social responsibility as a future leader and/or educator, and how the dissertation award would help them realize these goals. It would be helpful to include any information related to their academic/social experience relevant to the mission of Turner and any involvement they have had with the Center for Inclusive Education community or activities.
