Jules Feiffer is an award-winning cartoonist, playwright, screenwriter, satirist, children’s book author and graphic novelist, recognized internationally as one of the most influential cartoonists of our time. Through his creative work, he has made an important and varied contribution to America’s cultural life. And as a longtime faculty member at Stony Brook Southampton, he has inspired a new generation of writers.

The Bronx-native began his 70-plus-year career as a 16-year-old apprentice to famed cartoonist Will Eisner in the late 1940s. The young cartoonist soon rose to national prominence with his iconic comic strip Feiffer, which was a weekly staple in The Village Voice for 42 years and syndicated across the country. His cartoons have been featured in many prestigious publications, including The New Yorker, Esquire and Playboy. He was awarded the Pulitzer Prize for editorial cartooning in 1986 and inducted into the Comic Book Hall of Fame in 2004. He has also received lifetime achievement awards from the National Cartoonists Society and the Writers Guild of America.

A prolific writer, Feiffer’s work spans multiple mesia. As a screenwriter, he wrote Carnal Knowledge and Popeye. He also wrote the animated short Munro, which received the Academy Award for Best Animated Short Film. His plays include Knock Knock, Little Murders and The White House Murder Case. For the latter two plays, he won an Obie Award and an Outer Critics Critics Award.

Taking inspiration from his three daughters, he reinvented himself later in his career as a children’s book author and illustrator beginning with Norton Juster’s classic children’s novel The Phantom Tollbooth and continuing with the award-winning books, Bark George; I Lost My Bear; and The Man in the Ceiling. Most recently, Feiffer has published to wide acclaim a trilogy of noir graphic novels — Kill My Mother (2014), Cousin Joseph (2016) and The Ghost Script (2018). A full-length retrospective of his life and work, Out of Line: The Art of Jules Feiffer, was published in 2015 by Abrams Books.

In the late 1990s, Feiffer brought his wit and talent to Stony Brook Southampton, where he contributed to the growth of the college’s MFA in Creative Writing and Literature program. For more than a decade (until his retirement) he taught one of the most popular MFA courses: “Humor and Truth.” As his life’s work clearly demonstrates, Feiffer knows quite a bit about both.

For all Jules Feiffer has done for the arts and for the students of Stony Brook, the State University of New York is pleased to bestow upon him the honoris causa degree of Doctor of Humane Letters.

STONY BROOK ALMA MATER

Music: Peter Winkler
Lyrics: Winston Clark

Sandy shore meeting the Northern sea
Ancient ground where newborn dreams arise
Scarlet, gray, under azure skies
The morning of a lifetime lies in Stony Brook

Raise a grateful cheer for Stony Brook.

Youthful joys, youthful folly, too
Ancient wisdom seen through youthful eyes.
Life-long friends bound by youthful ties
The morning of a lifetime lies in Stony Brook

Raise a grateful cheer for Stony Brook!
