Dear Graduates,

I want to extend my profound congratulations to the members of the Stony Brook University Class of 2022 — a class that has employed ingenuity and creativity in tackling the challenges of the past two years.

As Seawolves, we are defined by our multifaceted nature: our ability to collaborate; reach across departments, disciplines, and fields; and innovate with purpose. Indeed, our graduates today reflect the incredible diversity of thought and experience at Stony Brook University. We are celebrating the commencement of the country’s next generation of physicians, artists, nurses, scientists, musicians, speech pathologists, authors, journalists, public servants, activists, and so much more. These students had to reimagine their education, pivot their work habits, and adapt their research. They had to help one another persevere through serious challenges, both emotional and physical, and maintain their academic excellence through it all.

And yet, that’s exactly what the Class of 2022 has done. You all have earned a degree from one of the finest universities in the world — an institution renowned for its significant contributions to the advancement of science; ingenuity in the arts, humanities, and critical thought; steadfast commitment to communities; and unwavering dedication to diversity, equity, and inclusion. You have earned your degrees, and you have done it with strength, compassion, humor, and creativity. You have done it with a wisdom that belies your academic years.

Our country and our world are at a critical moment, standing on the precipice of how we work together to handle some of the world’s most critical problems — racial and social justice, climate change, and more. You are a part of the next generation of leaders who will determine where we go from here. We will be looking to the members of the Class of 2022 for leadership, inspiration, and as a concrete example of how to meet life’s challenges with resilience and creativity.

As you join our more than 200,000 alumni from around the globe, we hope you, like them, will consider Stony Brook University to be a continuing resource and a second home. Congratulations, and welcome to this exciting next chapter of your lives.

Maurie McInnis
President
SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

TODD HAYNES
DOCTOR OF FINE ARTS

Todd Haynes is a visionary filmmaker, a master storyteller and one of the most lauded directors of independent film working today. During the course of four decades, his films and television work have made an impact across the globe.

Passionate about the visual arts since childhood, Haynes studied art and semiotics at Brown University, graduating with his bachelor of arts in 1985. It was at Brown where he met Christine Vachon (artistic director of Stony Brook University’s MFA in Film program), who would later produce all of his feature films and become a lifelong collaborator.

In 1987, while pursuing his MFA at Bard College, he created the medium-length, controversial film Superstar: The Karen Carpenter Story with Barbie dolls, which became a cult classic. Since then, he has tirelessly continued to address questions of gender and identity in his work. His first feature film, Poison, released in 1991, won the Grand Jury Prize at the Sundance Film Festival. Next he released Safe (1995), Julianne Moore’s first leading role, which he followed with Velvet Goldmine (1998) and Far from Heaven (2002). In 2006, he had six actors play Bob Dylan in I’m Not There before moving to television to direct the award-winning miniseries Mildred Pierce (2011) starring Kate Winslet. He returned to film in 2015 with the Oscar-nominated Carol starring Cate Blanchett, then followed with Wonderstruck (2017) and the legal thriller Dark Waters (2019). His most recent project, a documentary on the Velvet Underground, is now streaming on Apple TV.

Haynes’ collaboration and creative partnership with Vachon has fueled and defined the rise of American independent film, and Stony Brook graduate students have been the beneficiaries. Not only is Haynes an annual guest lecturer, but also his recent films have been used as real-time case studies in Vachon’s workshops. Every stage of production, including script development, storyboards, casting choices and distribution are examined in progress by the students in the Creative Writing and Film program. This rare access to the complicated collaborative process of independent filmmaking gives new meaning to experiential learning.

Since the early 1990s, Haynes has been considered American cinema’s most prominent gay directorial voice. For all he has done for the arts, the LGBTQ community and Stony Brook University students, the State University of New York is pleased to bestow upon Todd Haynes the degree of Doctor of Fine Arts, honoris causa.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Thank you, Coca-Cola Company, for your generous donation of water for Commencement.
Thank you to all the volunteers who stepped up to make this ceremony so successful.

This event is being photographed and/or videotaped and your image may be used in connection with the advertising or promotion of Stony Brook University and/or Stony Brook Medicine.
Closed captioning for the Ceremony is available via your smartphone or mobile device at stonybrook.edu/closedcaptioning

View webcasts of our Commencement Ceremony for up to two weeks after your ceremony at stonybrook.edu/live

Text celebratory photos of your graduate to (864) 734-4275 so we can feature them during Commencement (msg. and data rates may apply). You can also post your photos on Twitter and Instagram using #SBUGrad (public accounts only, subject to approval). Pictures may also be used across university social platforms. Photos will be available through June 1 on the Commencement website (stonybrook.edu/commencement).

EMERGENCY INFORMATION: In case of emergency, call (631) 632-3333 or dial 333 from any campus phone.
Congratulations, graduates! Welcome to the Stony Brook University Alumni Community. When you entered Stony Brook University, you became part of a special community — a community that values intellectual curiosity, creativity, individuality and service to society. As a graduate and new member of the Stony Brook University Alumni Association, you remain an important part of this extraordinary community.

Our alumni are a proud and engaged community that serves and supports the university; celebrates the achievements of students, faculty and fellow alumni; and works tirelessly to ensure that Stony Brook University stands with the finest universities in the world.

Join us by staying connected, getting involved and finding ways to give back to those students who will follow in your footsteps. Your Alumni Association is here to help you to do all this and more.

Stony Brook’s alumni services go far beyond the ordinary. Alumni Career Services offers dedicated advisors and resources to help you find your dream job and succeed in your chosen field. You’ll also be invited to exclusive networking, professional development and fun events both on campus and with alumni chapters across the country. (Make sure we have your current email so you won’t miss out on these incredible events!) And through the alumni website and social media channels, we’ll help you stay connected to your Stony Brook friends, professors and memories.

The Association’s Board of Directors and 209,000 proud fellow alumni join me in welcoming you to the Association and extending to you our heartfelt congratulations.
