Students applying for the scholarship are required to complete an application and submit the following materials for Selection Committee consideration:

- At least one letter of recommendation. Recommendation should be from a teacher, professor, advisor, supervisor, faculty, staff, mentor, or anyone else similarly positioned to speak to the applicant’s character and commitment to serving the LGBTQ communities.
- Submit a typed double spaced essay to include the following:
 - A personal statement describing the ways in which gender identity and/or sexual orientation impacts their life;
 - Past and current involvement in service to any or all LGBTQ communities;
 - Goals and plans for future service to any or all LGBTQ communities.

Preference for the Marylou Stewart Pride Scholarship will be given to students who can demonstrate identification with the goals of Pride@SBU, students with experience in the advancement of lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and queer (LGBTQ) issues and self-identification as lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender or queer and students who exhibit financial need as determined by the Office of Financial Aid and Scholarship Services. A new recipient will be chosen on an annual basis, as this is a one year award. Prior recipients must reapply for consideration for subsequent years.
