This course will trace the growth and evolution of New York City from its indigenous and colonial history through the early-twenty-first century. By studying changes in the city’s politics, economy, culture, and social fabric, students will gain knowledge of how Gotham earned its reputation as a dynamic global metropolis. Students will be expected to post to Blackboard’s Discussion Board following each lecture, and complete a midterm and final paper.