The Center for Korean Studies holds its 5th annual Korean Speech Contest. The contest aims to bring students of Korean language together and provide them with a chance to share their cultural and linguistic experiences through speech performances. This year’s contest was generously supported by the Korean Education Center and the Korean Language Foundation.

Main Guidelines:
1. Individual entries only.
2. Two categories (A. Beginner, B. Intermediate). Students may challenge themselves by competing in a higher level, but cannot enter in a level lower than the most recent class they have attended.
3. Speech Time: 3-4 minutes
4. Topic: Choose either 1) “Multicultural Society where we live altogether (다문화 사회 -- 다 함께 살아가기 전한 것)” or 2) “a place I wish to visit (나가 가보고 싶은 곳)”
5. Speeches must be memorized and performed verbally.
6. Performances will be judged on: level of communication with the audience, completeness of performance, and fluency.

Awards:
1. Grand prize ($1,000)
2. 2 awards for 못음상 ($500)
3. 2 awards for 감동상 ($500)
4. All participants will receive special souvenirs.

Register for the contest by sending your name, contact info and entry level to sanghyeon.kim@stonybrook.edu by March 10th. The draft for your speech is due no later than March 27th.
