Monday, March 6th
4:25 PM - 5:45 PM
@1008 Humanities

Hee Jung Han

She is a haegeum player currently active in the eastern United States and New York. She graduated from Chugye University of Arts with a degree in Korean traditional music. After completing the graduate school's Korean traditional music curriculum, she immigrated with marriage and began playing in New York and New Jersey in 2005. In 2011, she performed Haegum solo at the Korea Society under the theme of "contemporary tradition music series," and in 2021, she was selected as the NYSCA/NYFA Fellowship and is dedicated to promoting Korea to multi-ethnic people through recordings and concerts with Grant was supported by the New York Arts Foundation and the New York State Arts Council.
