

CALL FOR PROPOSALS

We invite all graduate students with research interests in Latin America, the Caribbean and their diasporas to submit a proposal for a student-led series at LACS this Fall.

LACS will fund one student-led series with up to $1,500.

The subject, format, dates and mode (Zoom or in person) are open. Graduate students can submit a series of up to three events over the course of the semester, or a one-day event, such as a roundtable or film screening with discussion. They can organize and propose the series individually or with a partner or group of students. Collaborations are encouraged.

Proposals should include title, short description/rationale, list of invited speakers/participants with links to their bios, proposed dates, and budget.

Submit a one-page single spaced proposal by September 3, 2021 to lacs@stonybrook.edu and lena.burgos-lafuente@stonybrook.edu
