

Algonquian Language Revitalization Project: Library Ribbon-Cutting Ceremony

Friday, April 14th at 10am

Ceremony Program

| | |
|---------------------|--|
| 09:30 am – 10:00 am | Arrivals , breakfast – Humanities Building Atrium |
| 9:45 am – 10:00 am | Ribbon-cutting party to walk to Social Behavioral Sciences (SBS) Building |
| 10:00 am – 10:15 am | Ribbon-cutting ceremony , photography in Algonquian Language Revitalization Project's Library – S108 SBS Building |
| 10:15 am – 10:20 am | Walk to Humanities Building Atrium |
| 10:20 am – 11:00 am | Speaking Ceremony Traditional Opening – Chief Harry Wallace Unkechaug Nation; Instructor, Stony Brook University Algonquian Language Revitalization Project Welcome - Judi Brown Clarke Vice President for Equity & Inclusion and Chief Diversity Officer, Stony Brook University Carl Lejuez Executive Vice President and Provost, Stony Brook University Betty A. Rosa Commissioner, New York State Education Department Hon. Lizbeth Gonzalez New York State Supreme Court Appellate Division; Stony Brook University's Alumni Association Board; Visiting Scholar; Coordinator, Stony Brook University Algonquian Language Revitalization Project Lori Repetti Chair of Linguistics Department, College of Arts and Sciences Chief Harry Wallace |
| 11:00 am – 11:05 am | Walk to Academic Mall Fountain |
| 11:05 am – 11:15 am | Drumming and Singing – Academic Mall Fountain |
| 11:15 am – 11:20 am | Traditional Closing – Chief Harry Wallace |
| 11:20 am – 11:30 am | Visit the Algonquian Language Revitalization Project's Library and Indigenous Book Display in Frank Melville, Jr. Memorial Library |